Would I make a good leader?

Focus Question: What does it mean to be a disciple of Jesus?

This unit enables pupils to explore what it means to be a follower of Jesus – both at the time of Jesus and today. References should be made to previous learning about Jesus – ie. That Jesus is special to Christians and is described as a 'light to the world', someone who brought hope to the world. This may be a good opportunity to introduce the work Messiah when talking about why some people at the time decided to devote their lives to following Jesus. This should then lead into an exploration of how Christians today might try to follow the example and teachings of Jesus – What does it mean to be a true follower?

Within this unit, pupils will reflect on the qualities that good leaders have and the idea that some people have a 'charisma' that attracts followers.

Beliefs and Values  2	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Read/watch the story of Jesus choosing his first disciples (Luke 5:1-11; Matthew 9:9-13). Discuss why these two men thought that Jesus was 'the one'. What leadership qualities might Jesus have demonstrated to them? Talk about the fact that he was a fisherman and probably worked long unsociable hours. He would have been a simple, uneducated but hardworking man – why might Jesus value these qualities in a follower?</li> <li>Discuss what qualities about Jesus might have made Simon Peter and Matthew want to follow him and leave everything behind.</li> <li>Hot-seat activity: ask a child to imagine that they are Simon Peter and they need to tell their family and friends that they are leaving home to become a disciple of Jesus (a man he has just met). The other children in the class could take on the role of family and friends and ask questions – or this could be done by the teacher.</li> </ul>
